Hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas. Because Christmas and the life of Christ and his resurrection, every day we can have a Christmas experience.

As you well know today is the last Sunday of this year. We will close the book on this year, and next week, open the book on another year. We must take the lessons learned from the past and face the new year with high expectation. Yes, we have had a wonderful year with many being saved and baptized. Our church grew this last year; we must set the bar a little higher, as we believe God for an even greater year ahead.

Remember the word of God when he said: "Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season, we shall reap, if we faint not."

The work of God can sometimes be wearisome, but we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us.

God bless you all!

Dr. Malcolm S. Clements
